EDITOR'S LETTER

With the improving weather my focus is still on the garden and all things outdoorsy.

I was lucky enough recently to inherit 10 chickens (including 2 roosters) to add to my own very small flock of two. The new flock has settled in well however the original two are somewhat put out by having their run taken over by this invading horde. They spend much of their time on the outer and whenever I'm nearby appeal in their little chicken voices to please put things back to how they once were.

The asparagus patch is generating the first of the spring harvest or would be if not for whatever it was that chopped the tops off the emerging spears. A cover may be necessary or perhaps a companion crop to hide those enticing morsels poking up through the ground.

The plum is covered in flowers as are the dwarf peaches. We've spotted a few hoverflies and some nectar eating birds however no sign of bees. Unless the days warm up fairly quickly they'll be no stone fruit this season. Fingers crossed the other fruit trees and berries will produce a reasonable crop to enjoy over Christmas and in the new year.

By the time you read this the frost sensitive seeds will be planted in pots to germinate. Once the frosts have passed they'll be good strong seedlings to go straight into the garden. Then it will be a matter of keeping an eye on the weather and putting into action the "saving everything from a late frost plan" when required!

I hope you enjoy the October Trumpet.

Cheers

Pauline Nolan

CFA REPORT

Recent wet weather will delay the onset of dangerous conditions this year but landholders and town residents alike should continue to carry out their preparations for the summer.

As well as checking pumps and pipes that may have deteriorated during the winter and clearing all combustible material from around buildings, people are urged to have a fire plan that goes beyond the simple intention to drive away from home before a fire arrives.

The brigade has noted that, when asked, "What will you do, if for some reason, you cannot leave early?" many people have no fallback plan. Electricity supply can be cut hours before a bushfire arrives. Lights and garage roller doors may not work when expected.

Car motors may not start when needed on very hot days. Strong winds may drop heavy tree branches across a road. So besides, "Leave Early," it makes sense to have a back-up plan in case the family unexpectedly has to, "Stay And Defend".

GARDENS OF GLENLYON - SPRING 2016

Gardens of Glenlyon is a seasonal event, culminating in Spring, this year. Volunteers - both gardeners and the community - work hard to ensure that the gardens are in tip-top shape for viewing by the public.

Gardens of Glenlyon was first held in summer in December 2012. Followed by Autumn in April 2014 and Winter in August 2015.

This year Gardens of Glenlyon will be held on Saturday 15 and Sunday 16 October 10am - 4pm. A special dinner on Saturday night in the Glenlyon Hall headlines guest speaker Richard Cornish, author, writer, grower, eater and raconteur (bookings essential on trybooking.com/MCBE).

Events over the weekend are centred in and around the historic Glenlyon Hall, Barkly Street, Glenlyon (Central Victoria). There you'll be able to buy tickets to gardens ($5 each) and shop at stalls showcasing horticultural and botanical products, plants, garden sculptures, etc.

The six gardens are Vizla Lak, Throssell's Mill, Wallaby Creek, Jenny's Garden, Greenlion, Adsum Farm.

Gardens of Glenlyon gives people the opportunity to see our beautiful part of the world and explore a range of gardens, from formal home gardens to rambling bush estates and this year a small market garden.

Visitors will see how gardeners in this area have addressed the diversity of soil types, microclimates and site locations.

Funds raised from this event will go towards plantscaping the Glenlyon Hall once coming renovations have been completed.

Small Business Restructures

The government recently passed into law new small business rollover rules.

The new rules are designed to enable any small business to restructure their business without Capital Gains Tax (CGT). Rollover is generally available providing the following conditions are met:

1. Both entities involved are small business entities (turnover less than $2 million dollars or net assets less than $6 million).
2. There is no change in the ultimate economic ownership of the significant business assets.
3. Those significant assets continue to be active assets
4. No significant private use of these active assets.

The rollover relief rules apply from 1 July 2016 to transfers between sole traders, companies, partnerships or trusts.

Consider Jake's Case:

Jake is thinking of restructuring his Earthmoving business which turns over $1 million per annum. Currently a company he is looking to trade as a trust. Jake owns 100% of the shares in the company. Jake's advisor sets up a Trust called Jakes Trust and Jake is made the test individual in the Family Trust Election. There is no change in beneficial ownership. The business assets continue to be used in the trust and they are not used outside of the business. Jake can therefore apply the CGT rollover relief. Jake may need to consider GST and stamp duty.

Should you wish to discuss further please feel free to contact Andrew Marshall or Janine Orpwood on 5427 8100 for an initial consultation.

WHERE WOULD WE BE WITHOUT OUR POLICE?

They're the community members we turn to in crises, they're on call 24/7, they willingly offer assistance, guidance and advice and there's not much they haven't seen.

On April 14, 1866, the Trentham Police Station opened.

This year, the station commemorates 150 years of service to our community.

That's a long time and a lot of dedicated team members throughout the years who have given their time and best efforts to keep us all safe and living in relative harmony.

In honour of all those years of service, Assistant Commissioner and regional commander for the western region, Tess Walsh, Ballarat divisional commander superintendent, Andrew Allen, and Trentham Sergeant Nathan Gardiner will unveil a Recognition of Service board at a commemorative morning tea at the station on Friday, October 14.

The Recognition of Service honour board listing the names and ranks of all those who have been stationed in Trentham up to this year will be mounted within the station.

Up to 20 members whose service dates back to 1973, will attend, as well as members of the Trentham Historical Society, family members of former police stationed at Trentham, Police Association members and Member for Ballarat, Catherine King, and Member for Macedon, Mary Anne Thomas.

"The Trentham Historical Society has been a great help with records and old photos," Sgt Gardiner said.

Members of the public are welcome to join in the celebrations.

Words in Winter

TNC was packed for The Last Word

THE LAST WORD

With a jam-packed program throughout the month of August, Words in Winter Trentham wrapped up on Sunday 28 August.

The Last Word event acknowledged all the winning poets and authors with special guest Tom Walsh sharing a couple of his amusing stories. Young Voices of Macedon (children's choir) entertained the audience and Captain Wombat and the Winter Fairy made a final appearance!

This year's festival started with a bang when a winning team of Trentham locals took out the Clever Towns Challenge. Congratulations to everyone who participated.

Trentham Library arranged an author talk by Ian Braybrook. His new book "Bush Wireless" relates his many years with community radio.

Writers got to try their hand at two very different competitions – RedBeard Bakery's 50 Word Stories and the Ellen Kemp Memorial Writer's Prize for short stories up to 3000 words. Thanks to RedBeard Bakery and Ellen Kemp's family for their ongoing support.

Trentham District Historical Society hosted the Bush Poetry event. A great sense of place was evoked by the winning Original Poem and Julie Morris won the performance section. Local Trentham treasure Bruce McKenzie was honoured with a reading of one of his bush poems.

Contemporary Poetry was also well supported this year with 74 entries and thanks go to The Trentham Trumpet for its sponsorship.

Cool Harmony Choir hosted A Pleasant Sunday Afternoon of music and song and Trentham Photography Club hosted a photographic exhibition.

Mel Thomas and the crew at Chaplins put together "An Evening with Charlie Chaplin". It was definitely a night to remember and the lucky guests enjoyed a delicious meal and the silent (and not so silent) antics of Charlie Chaplin.

Peter Fernon wrote and performed "This Jesus Story" and E A (Anne) Gleeson brought us a lively discussion and poetry exploring the ideas behind the way we choose to do death.

This year two children's events were undertaken with an exhibition of photos and short stories and a treasure hunt around Trentham. Captain Wombat and the Winter Fairy were on hand to provide a few additional clues!

This year's event was possible thanks to sponsorship provided by the Trentham Trumpet and Chaplins on the Muse. Thanks go to judges Brenda Glover (Ellen Kemp), Karen McCrea (RedBeard 50 Word), Maggie Murphy (Bush Poetry) and Kevin Brophy (Contemporary Poetry). Local Trentham venues included the Lincoln Gallery, The Plough@Trentham, TNC, Trentham Library and St George's Church. Thanks also to Trentham IGA for providing food platters.

The Words in Winter Trentham committee would also like to extend their thanks to Gael Elliott who, after committing 10 years to WIW Trentham, has made the decision to step down. Gael's long and dedicated service to the festival is greatly appreciated.

SEARCHING FOR THE BRISTLEBIRD

A scientist scans the data of the forest's soundscape but her acoustic niche is empty. Within the discreet bandwidth of her unique call, there is only silence.

In the forest the child sits quietly, eyes closed, with clear memory of bird song, waiting.

Now, the heart must hear what remains.

TANJIL BREN

Far from the highway to the highest peak,
There's a hidden byway to the place I seek.
Follow the river; walk with me again
To the silent valley; to the heart of Tanjil Bren,

Skirting the ridges, soft across the moss,
Natural the bridges, forest giants lost.
Deep in the hollow, with the fairy wren,
Through the sheltered valley, to the heart of Tanjil Bren.

Mist of the morning drifts on the breeze
Whispers of whiskers shift through the trees.
Waterfall rainbows draw the sun again
To the shadowed valley in the heart of Tanjil Bren.

Here where the tree ferns fan their fronds so wide,
Offering the creatures places they can hide:
Silence enfolds me. Childhood lives again
In the scented valley, at the heart of Tanjil Bren.

IF YOU WERE HERE

what would I say
if you were here

I'd tell you about the olives I picked from the tree
in the garden
and cured in salt water

I'd ask after your dog
if she was happy
with my old mattress
as her bed
if she needed food
or blankets

I'd apologise
for drinking your wine
replace it with the beer I brewed and named for you forgive me for drinking that too

I'd say
I missed you

speak passion in your ear remind you of that night and how you whispered my name into the dark

I'd wonder how you managed to reach me how you tiptoed into where collecting dust
I had hidden

but if you were here
on your side of my small bed
I don't think I would say a thing

Film Society members 'decoding' Imitation Game film notes.

WARTIME MYSTERIES IN WOODEND

Macedon Ranges Film Society's September screening featured the compelling drama 'The Imitation Game'.

Based loosely on Andrew Hodges biography of Alan Turing, the film stars Benedict Cumberbatch as the real life cryptanalyst Alan Turing. Turing worked for British military during WW2 designing and building a 'computer-like' decoding machine to decrypt German military messages. In so doing, helped shorten the war saving many lives.

The film, also starring Kiera Knightley as Joan Clark, Turing's assistant and faux love interest, touches on attitudes to, and vilification of, homosexuality. Turing, a homosexual, was prosecuted as such in 1952. He committed suicide in 1954.

Another contentious issue addressed in the film was that having cracked the code, the British kept this a secret so the Germans would not be alerted to the fact that their information was known; as a result, some acts of war were allowed to be committed against the British, costing many lives.

The Macedon Ranges Film Society meets on the second Wednesday each month at Woodend Community Centre. Film notes and an informal supper are part of the evening.

OCTOBER CONCERTS

2016 Spring Concert Sunday October 16th
2.30pm – 4.30pm at Degraes Mill, Carlsrhue.

The 2016 MITCH Spring Concert

The 2016 Spring concert has an Irish flavour. MITCH is proud to present an 'Irish session' featuring the wonderful Walsh's – a family that can rightly claim three generations of local musicians who continue to celebrate the Irish traditions of their ancestors.

Award-winning Irish singer-songwriter Darren 'Gallie' Gallagher will perform the second set. Gallie's original songs contribute his own colour to a significantly rich canvas that echoes the influence of legendary Irish forefathers such as Van Morrison, and extend a warm handshake to folk artists like Neil Young and John Martyn.

The Young Musician for the concert is Finbar Walsh, son of Denis and Allison Walsh. Seven-year-old Fin is an astounding player of the Bodhrun – the percussive instrument of the Irish traditional instrument family.

The venue is the acoustically astounding Degraes Mill outside Kyneton. The 150-year-old ex-flour mill is on the National Trust register and will perfectly complement the musicians and singers.

LIVING IN A DANCE WITH UNCERTAINTY

In 'The Ethical Imagination' Margaret Somerville suggests that prior to cultivating 'old virtues for a new world' (2004), we must learn to live with uncertainty...

In his Words in Winter Trentham presentation of "This Jesus Story" on 27 August, Peter Fernon suggests to dance as a way of living with uncertainty and begins his story with it. His way of telling this story, thoroughly grounded in scripture and in his own experience, captures both our modern consciousness, a reading of the gospels riddled with uncertainty as well as the extraordinary, stable integrity of this Jesus person who came to fulfil the law, not to abolish it.

The strange paradox of the Sermon on the Mount, where it is the poor of spirit, the weak, the vulnerable that will inherit the kingdom... the mother puzzled by a 12-year-old son, who insists on attending to the affairs of his father and then - grown up - seemingly reluctant to produce the wine. Peter's presentation is a strong, imaginative integration of music, poetry, storytelling, dance and theatre.

The narrative, with all its uncertainties and possibilities, as to how this might have happened and how one, 2000 years later, might make sense of it, stays central to it and weaves it – as in a dance – together.

There is a chance to experience and see for yourself: on Saturday 8 October, in the hall at the Anglican Church, Woodend, 7.30 pm, $20 contribution. For the text of his agile "dance with uncertainty", see elsewhere in this issue.

At our weekly meditation for world peace, we meet where East and West agree and we take living in "the now" as key. This month we take a break and start again on 24 October. For details see Ongoing Events.

TRENTHAM CRICKET CLUB LOOKS FORWARD TO NEW SEASON

The Trentham Cricket Club is getting ready to face new challenges as it prepares for the 2016-17 season of the Castlemaine and District Cricket Association competition. The new season begins on 8th October and the club is now inviting players to make up its squads for two senior teams and an Under 16 junior team.

The Saints are full of optimism and are very keen to add to their successes of last season, which saw the A-Reserve team win its second consecutive one-day cricket shield and finish runners-up in the A-Reserve Grade (also for the second year in a row), and both the B Grade team and B-Reserve team (Colts) make semi-finals.

Last season, the club successfully fielded three senior teams for the first time in its history, a great achievement which was capped off by all three teams making finals. This season unfortunately sees the departure of a number of players due mainly to work commitments and/or movement away from the area. The club has therefore decided to enter just two senior teams but hopes to retain a strong youth presence to build for the future. The club also plans to again field an Under 16 team and encourages boys and girls aged 10 to 15 to try out with the team.

Practice for the senior squads will be held (weather permitting) at Trentham Sportsground from 5pm each Thursday starting 22nd September. Practice for juniors will be on Wednesday nights at 5pm beginning 5th October.

GLOBAL ARTS ROMP CONTINUES

The ADFAS CV program is continuing until the end of the year, with specialist presentations on art and urban design from Australasia to the UK and the Middle East.

Escaping the plague epidemic in Sydney in 1900, Australian artist Tom Roberts headed to New Zealand, where he created some little-known masterpieces. Jane Vial, a specialist in early 20th-century Australasian art, spoke to around 100 members and guests on 'Tom Roberts' Adventures in New Zealand' at the 15 September ADFAS CV lecture at the Kyneton Town Hall.

The October lecture will introduce UK art historian Mary Alexander speaking on 'David Hockney: Mr & Mrs Clark – Fashion and Lifestyle Icons of the 1960s'. David Hockney is considered one of the most influential British artists of the 20th century. In his portraits of friends, lovers, and relatives he repeatedly returns to the same subjects, including fashion designers Celia Birtwell and Ossie Clark.

Alexander's lecture will explore Hockney's famous painting, 'Mr and Mrs Clark and Percy' (1970-71), revealing the dramatic tragedy unfolding behind the cool and modernist interior in which the Clarks are represented. The AGM will precede the lecture, so members are asked to arrive at 7pm to sign the register.

Although this is the last lecture for the year, the ADFAS CV program continues to the end of the year, with a speakers' luncheon at Macedon Wine Room on 6 October when retired Woodend architect and urban designer David Faggetter will speak about his unique experience developing an urban design around the ancient oasis in Al Ain in the Abu Dhabi Emirate. A trip to Ballarat is planned on 27 October to view the Archibald Exhibition 2016, followed by the annual Sunset Party on 8 December.

If you are interested in any of these activities and would like to join ADFAS CV, email adfascenvic@gmail.com. au or ring Norma, 5427 4918.

HEPBURN SHIRE COUNCIL ELECTION CANDIDATES

The Trumpet invited all candidates for the Coliban Ward in the upcoming Hepburn Shire Council elections to participate in a Q&A. This offer provided a great opportunity to introduce Candidates' thoughts and views for the Coliban electorate.

Responses were limited to 75 words for each question and a deadline of 5pm Sunday 25 September 2016 was provided.

The Trumpet's editorial committee endorses no particular candidate and responses are set out in the order in which they were received.

COLIBAN WARD CANDIDATE KATE EVANS

1. What do you see as the main challenges facing the Coliban Ward?

- Identity
- Development and potential urbanisation
- Infrastructure and resources
- Fire Safety
- Social cohesion

2. If elected, what steps do you propose to take to address these challenges?

- Secure the character and rural amenity by promoting heritage tourism and an Agricultural identity for the ward.
- Oppose any development that imposes upon the character and rural amenity.
- Deliver Early Years Services, the Trentham hub and work with residents to identify further needs.
- Support new energy initiatives, conservation and sustainable practices. eg. Cash back incentive on the purchase of water tanks.
- Work closely with CFA.
- Uphold the principles of Community Development.

3. How will you engage with Coliban Ward constituents if you are elected to council?

- Monthly ward meetings in alternating towns and additional meetings when required.
- Advertise agenda for ward meetings in local publications and on community notice board.
- Use a variety of communication measures; meetings, outreach, listening posts, email, phone.
- Encourage residents to attend and participate in council meetings.
- Broad base community consultation on all issues.

4. How will you make a difference for the Coliban Ward if elected?

- Fair, equal and transparent representation.
- Clear and regular information provision on, and feedback mechanisms for, all matters regarding the ward.
- Social action and equity.
- Unite residents in the commonality of food by promoting the region as "Food Town".

HSC Election Candidates - Continued page 14

ELIZABETH BURNS

1. What do you see as the main challenges facing the Coliban Ward?

- HSC decision making processes
- Rates equity across shire, ward & demographics
- Boundaries – shire & ward
- Water
- Preserving prime food production land
- Planning sustainable population growth
- Safety – feeling safe in home, community & free to express ones opinion
- Bullarto Community Facilities
- Musk Tennis Court funds
- Diversity of views & aspirations & biodiversity
- Transport & Connectivity via walking/cycling tracks
- Potential loss of an unique small community school at Bullarto
- Meaningful jobs for our young people

2. If elected, what steps do you propose to take to address these challenges?

- Engage community in feeling empowered to take control of decision making process involving meetings at different times of day/week & in different settings.
- Trentham is unique in owning all its facilities however HSC is still responsible for a fair contribution to their up keep.
- Issues like planning, water & farm land preservation seem outside HSC's direct control. HSC can still advocate to appropriate bodies. I've had discussions with our local MP & Water Catchment Authority.

3. How will you engage with Coliban Ward constituents if you are elected to council?

Having a lifetime of experience with Coliban Ward & beyond; family history going back to its very beginning and involvement with a wide range of groups across the whole ward gives me a base understanding of the diversity of views & lifestyles that makes up our community.

I am able to listen & converse at all levels of the community & beyond. We have a great skill base from which to harness our local talent.

4. How will you make a difference for the Coliban Ward if elected?

Through my Agriculture, Nutrition, Community Health & Development training & experience as an independent Councillor (Fitzroy). To be independent, representing the whole community & making decisions based on all available information. As one Councillor's voice out of 7, negotiation and advocacy is essential.

With 20 years experience as a Community Paediatric Dietitian, I would like to see HSC do more for future generations.

I'm flexible enough to put Coliban Ward and Hepburn Shire issues first.

COLIBAN WARD CANDIDATE – JOHN MCLAREN

1. What do you see as the main challenges facing the Coliban Ward?

The immediate challenge for Coliban is to rebuild the confidence of the six other councillors in the leadership of the ward.

If the other councillors believe the information they receive is unreliable or not comprehensive, they will be cautious in decisions involving significant outlays of investment funds. Restoration of confidence is imperative!

2. If elected, what steps do you propose to take to address these challenges?

The Council's decision is to construct the new Hub facility on its own land in Victoria Street. Residents now need to be given time to consider all aspects of the proposed complex, including the reasons behind the features it incorporates. If the community endorses the composition of the complex, people are more likely to be whole hearted in their efforts to raise additional funds required to complete it, should that be necessary.

3. How will you engage with Coliban Ward constituents if you are elected to council?

Any councillor is now readily available through the formal channels provided by the Shire. However, since many people much prefer the opportunity for informal contact, it is important for a councillor to be available as a matter of course at a recognised location and convenient time. Saturday mornings in the main street might be a good way to start.

4. How will you make a difference for the Coliban Ward if elected?

In the next four years it would be good to see:

[a] the committees of management of the Bullarto and Lyonville Halls with the resources they need to continue their programs of improvement,

[b] the Trentham Mechanics Institute Hall properly maintained and functioning to its potential,

[c] the Trentham Hub completed and operating effectively,

[d] pedestrian crossings introduced on High Street and Victoria Street,

[e] the new street trees flourishing through their first few summers.

COLIBAN WARD CANDIDATE – SEBASTIAN KLEIN

1. What do you see as the main challenges facing the Coliban Ward?

Our critical challenge in Coliban Ward is to preserve and build upon the strengths and qualities of the place we love, while making the most of the visitor economy. We can have natural beauty, agriculture, lifestyle and a growing community. However, we need to provide quality infrastructure and services to support this. It requires all of us working together

2. If elected, what steps do you propose to take to address these challenges?

I will continue to promote the need for council to provide the same basic services that are provided for communities elsewhere - childcare, decent meeting facilities for our elders and young people, active recreation opportunities like walking and cycling and a library open at least five days a week.

We also need follow through on the economic development and biodiversity strategies to shape the community we are becoming.

3. How will you engage with Coliban Ward constituents if you are elected to council?

I am committing to four more years of collaborative, consensus-based planning, consultation and decision making.

I will continue with monthly ward meetings, willingness to talk to everyone anywhere any time and take all views on board.

Whether we agree on everything or not, I think a small community like ours depends on civil discourse and a minimum of respect, no matter your background or point of view.

4. How will you make a difference for the Coliban Ward if elected?

I will bring eight years of experience with the verve and vigour of youth.

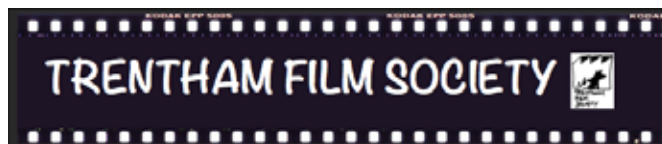

Councils are unique in how they function and how decisions are made - that experience will be critical for Trentham and Coliban Ward.

Anyone who knows me is aware that I am dedicated and tireless - always ready and willing to take on single issues or the strategic picture - this won't change in the next four!

October 8 KEEP ON KEEPIN' ON (USA, 2014, 84 mins.

Music/drama/biography)
Director: Alan Hicks;
Featuring: Clark Terry, Justin Kauflin,
Gwen Terry, Quincy Jones.
Language: English

Inspirational but laid-back jazz legend, 93 year-old Clark Terry broke racial barriers on American television, played with both the Duke Ellington and Count Basie bands, and mentored the likes of Miles Davis and Quincy Jones. Set in his later years, this film lovingly portrays his friendship with Justin Kauflin, a 23 year-old, prodigiously talented, blind pianist. Tough challenges emerge for both our protagonists in this tale of love, perseverance, courage, humility and the power of music.

COOL COUNTRY CLASSICS CAR CLUB

We have had another busy month for events and runs for members.

The Federation Marong Picnic was a great day with visitors enjoying sunny weather while viewing the hundreds of vehicles that had travelled from far and wide to the display.

Next, the Club ventured to the Malmsbury Show & Shine which was themed for the 1950's. Although a little damp under foot, the day was bathed in sunshine as we all strolled around the display and the Malmsbury village precinct, with all businesses and local groups supporting such a wonderful event. On the way home, members travelled to 'Teldorado', the ultimate bloke's backyard. What an amazing place Terry Moore has created, which really has to be seen to be appreciated. We enjoyed wood fired pizzas, friendly chats and were even entertained by Tretham's own Cool Country Ukes.

Some members have also attended the Metcalfe Tractor Pull, the Mt Franklin Car Show, and Cars & Coffee, which has recommenced, this time in the main street of Daylesford.

We have a busy, but relaxed time ahead with events and runs to such places as the Chrysler Museum in Kyneton, Wings & Wheels in Maryborough, the Bendigo Swap Meet, Kyneton Aero Club's 50th Anniversary and a return trip to the Goldfields Railway to name a few.

And special to all of this is our own Car Show & Display on November 13th, with an open invitation to the Tretham community to come down to the Station to see why the Car Club members enjoy their hobby and take pride in what they can achieve with their vehicles. For anyone interested, the Club meets at 7.30pm on the 2nd Wednesday each month at the Cosmo.

Happy motoring

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Shareholders and any other interested persons are most welcome to attend.

Little Blue Towels

Buy a blue towel and help beat breast cancer.

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month and you are being asked to get on board with a fundraising appeal to help those living with the insidious disease.

The "Little Blue Towel" initiative recycles towels from hospitals used to dry sterilised hands. Generally discarded after a single use, the towels are laundered and packaged by Echuca-based Laundry Mates, an enterprise owned and operated by people with disabilities.

The recycled towels are lint-free, super absorbent and perfect for cleaning, camping or fishing.

Each packet sold will help those diagnosed with breast cancer spend time at a special retreat with their families at no cost, courtesy of the OTIS Foundation. This year the charity will make close to 4,000 nights of accommodation available.

Breast cancer is the third most commonly diagnosed cancer in Australia and it is estimated that 15,934 females and 150 males will be diagnosed with new cases in 2016.

One in eight women will be diagnosed during their lifetime and eight women die every day from the disease.

Branch Manager Jane Lincoln said the statistics were staggering, and the branch wanted to do all it could to help.

"Bendigo Bank has been a long-time supporter of The OTIS Foundation and we're proud to be able to help them even further with the Little Blue Towels fundraising campaign as part of Breast Cancer Awareness month," Jane said.

"Every one of us has known someone who has battled breast cancer, so we see this as another important step in helping to strengthen our local community."

Head into Trentham & Districts Community Bank® Branch at 37B High Street, Trentham to buy a Little Blue Towel during October. Packs of five recycled towels are $5 and 100 percent of proceeds go to the OTIS Foundation.

DANCE WITH UNCERTAINTY

by Peter Fernon

now come good people from the city and the town from the field, from the forest and from working underground

do a quick two step and a one two three and dance, yes dance, with uncertainty look to the east and look to the west north and south and right and left there's no right answer to get you off the hook there's no simple truth and there's no good book we got a lot of fundamentalism, feminism, pacifism, pragmatism capitalism, corporatism, hedonism, humanism romanticism, realism, anarchism, atheism socialism, solipsism, cynicism, scepticism christian, hindu, buddhist, muslim bureaucracy, democracy, autocracy, theocracy economy, ecology, biology, psychology and each of them is right and each of them is wrong and there is no holy, is no holy, is no holy, one so move one way and then another don't you move like a jerk, but like you're dancing with your lover

there's a place for confusion and there's fun at the fair

take a glide next step, like you're skating on air skating, like you're skating on air

learn some elasticity
and dance, yes dance with uncertainty

GAME OF TABLE TENNIS ANYONE?

If you're looking for a way to stay socially and physically active in the cooler months, then you might like to join Trentham Table Tennis Club Inc.

The club was established in Trentham over 30 years ago and is run by a small team of friendly volunteers. Currently, the club has 32 members of varying ages, from primary school age to players in their 80's. Players are mostly from Trentham and surrounds, but over the years the club has attracted members from as far away as Sunbury. Now that's saying something!

The club meets at The Trentham Mechanics Institute each Wednesday from April through to August at 7pm. Club President Pete Ekstedt says "It's a very friendly and social environment". Members sit up on the stage with a coffee or tea and chat and watch games of table tennis while waiting for their turn to play.

The regular weekly competition is team based and consists of three members per team. The teams are of mixed ages and abilities. Three club members have recently been certified as table tennis coaches by Table Tennis Victoria, and are ready to help new players learn the game.

In 2016 Trentham Table Tennis Club Inc. was fortunate to receive a grant of $4,000 from the Trentham & Districts Community Bank® Branch and a grant of $2,000 from Hepburn Shire Council. These grants enabled the club to purchase world class equipment. All the old, damaged tables, barriers, nets and scoreboards have been replaced, which makes it easier and safer for volunteers to assemble and pack away.

Reps from both granting organisations attended the club's annual grand final and presentation night in September, where they were warmly thanked by the members. President Pete says everyone is thrilled with the new equipment, and he hopes it will attract new members in 2017.

Annual membership is $25 for adults and $15 for students. The 2017 season starts in April and runs through to August. To register your interest, please visit the club website at:

Breast Cancer Awareness

EARLY DETECTION of breast cancer increases the chances of successful treatment and ultimately, survival. It is important to know what is normal for you because everyone is different and as you go through different stages of your life your breasts are continually changing.

Springs Medical Centre is encouraging all women to become proficient at self-examination as this is vital to early detection of abnormalities or changes to the breast. It is good practice to make a regular routine of checking your breasts both visually and by feeling for any lumps or pain.

Visually looking for lumpiness, thickening of tissue, dimpling, puckering, redness, nipple discharge or changes, skin changes or part of the breast feeling different to the rest of the breast.

Feeling the entire breast tissue from the collar bone to below your bra line and into the under arm. Feeling near the surface then deeper using the flat part of your fingers. Feeling your breasts in the bath or shower, lying down or when getting dressed.

If you notice any changes, see your doctor immediately. If you are over 50 have a free screening mammogram every 2 years. If you are 40 or over and have a family history of Breast Cancer you are eligible for a free breast screen.

Men are not to be forgotten as breast cancer is also relevant to them. Although rare in men it is still possible as they also have breast tissue. Men's symptoms are similar to women's.

If you have any concerns please contact Springs Medical Centre and make an appointment to see a Doctor. Ring Springs Medical Centre Trentham on 5424 1602 or Daylesford on 5348 2227.

LETTERS TO THE TRUMPET

Onwards and upwards

There is no evidence to support the claim that building the Trentham Hub on council land will not include the function centre and commercial kitchen. Further broad base community consultation will occur to ensure the needs identified through the Facilities Review over three years ago are confirmed. Residents will have the opportunity to advocate what they need. Primary reasons for the site change were that it will provide optimal funding success from State Government and an abundance of parking.

Building the Hub around the Mechanics Hall would have incurred deletion of services. As stated at Cr Klein's August ward meeting, the senior's lounge and Life Activities space would have been deleted and there would have been little on-site parking.

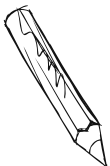

It was stated by Cr Henderson at the August council meeting that the community contribution be waived, due to residents of Clunes, Creswick and Daylesford not having to contribute to their hubs; a proposal that I will advocate for.

The new plan provides a modern community service centre, a heritage community hall with a stage and the opportunity to resurrect the Institute – a win, win, win for Trentham and districts, now and into our growing future. There are scores of people willing and able to manage the Mechanics Institute Reserve, so there is no need to worry about the future of the hall.

The community can look forward to three exciting projects eventuating, so it is time to focus on the next priority project, securing Early Years Services.
